January 15, 2026; 1100 - 1245 hrs.

Venue: DPG Conference Room, 1st Floor, Core 5A, India Habitat Centre

Event Profile

Against the backdrop of growing uncertainty and major disruptions to the global order, India and European nations have over the past year steadily advanced a more strategically oriented relationship based on shared values and interests. Germany is the leading economic power in Europe and the key determinant in shaping the European Union's policies on trade and security issues.

The Delhi Policy Group will organise a roundtable discussion with H.E. Dr. Philip Ackermann, Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany to India, on January 15, 2026. Ambassador Ackermann has kindly agreed to share the German perspective on political, economic, and security developments in Europe, as well as prospects for India-Germany and India-EU relations. An interactive discussion will follow his remarks. The event will be held under the Chatham House Rule.

The discussion will be followed by lunch.
